To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to extend this reference for Mark Gluck. My company partners and I were introduced to Mark via telephone by a mutual colleague in Dallas. It was evident during our first conversation that he quickly and easily grasped existing concepts and problems and was able to offer solutions and very helpful advice.

We continued to work with Mark on a consulting basis for six months, during which he coached us on how best to create and deliver investor and Emerging Technology Fund presentations. Mark is always able to see through the situation and get right to the point. His business acumen is above par and his words of wisdom saw us through three investor presentations.

Mark Gluck is supportive, trustworthy and an expert in dealing with funding applicants. He is a calming voice in what can be a storm of information and stress.

I would recommend him highly for any consulting engagement.

Sincerely,
